Pig Tales: This Little Piggy Wrote a Story...

The Pig Tales Writing Competition is open to all students in grades K-12 attending any public, private or home school in Toombs County. Students are invited to write a short story, poem, or essay, in 750 words or less, about their lives growing up in rural Georgia. Work can be fiction or nonfiction. Students are limited to one entry. Submissions and release agreement must be turned in to a representative at the student's school, or they may be dropped off or mailed to:
Lyons Main Street Office, Attention: Rustin Howard, 134 NW Broad Street, Lyons, GA 30436.

Submissions must be turned in or post marked by October 1, 2015.
A committee of professional educators, sponsors, and City of Lyons staff will judge entries on creativity, presentation and correspondence to the theme.

First, second, and third place winners will be chosen from the following categories:

Kindergarten-Second Grades Third-Fifth Grades
Sixth-Eighth Grades Ninth-Twelfth Grades

Winners will be notified and given an invitation to accept their awards at The Real Squeal Lyons BBQ & Music Festival on October 10, 2015 at Partin Park.
